

LAURIE'S LINE NOTES 12/1

-pg. 15 - "I thought that was terrifically daring of you chopping down Grandfather's tree."

-pg. 15 - "I don't mind at all."

-pg. 33 - "...This is Mr. John Brooke. He's a scholar from Boston."

-pg. 34 - "It's not awful. I've got a cranky..." (have been saying 'It's not all bad.')

-pg. 35 - (in the song) "I'll bet we could get a camel through a needle"

-pg. 55 - "The carriage is ready, Mrs. March"

*added an "almost"

-pg. 66 - "You don't mean that?"

"You'll marry."

"You will. Just not me. That's what you're really saying. You'll find someone-"

*I advise to review this section.
